COME NOW, the parties and submit to the Court their joint statement of the case pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16€ and LR 16.1:

Statement of the Case

This is a civil case brought by the Plaintiff, Dustin Burnikel against the Defendants Michael Fong and Gregg Wessels, police officers employed by the Des Moines Police Department.

Mr. Burnikel asserts a claim of “excessive force” in violation of the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution against Mr. Fong and also Mr. Wessels. Mr. Burnikel also asserts that the officers each committed a “battery” against him in the process of arrest. Mr. Fong and Mr. Wessels deny these claims.

Mr. Burnikel has also brought a claim of a “false arrest” under the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution against Mr. Fong and also Mr. Wessels. Mr. Burnikel further asserts that the officers each subjected him to a “malicious prosecution” for alleged criminal violations. Mr. Fong and Mr. Wessels also deny these claims.

You have been chosen and sworn as jurors to try the issues of fact related to the plaintiff’s claims. In making your decision, you are the sole judges of the facts. You must not decide this case based on personal likes or dislikes, generalizations, gut feelings, prejudices, sympathies, stereotypes, or biases. The law demands that you return a just verdict, based solely on the evidence, your individual evaluation of that evidence, your reason and common sense, and these Instructions. Do not take anything that I have said or done or that I may say or do as indicating what I think of the evidence or what I think your verdict should be.

You should consider and decide this case as an action between persons of equal standing in the community, of equal worth, and holding the same or similar stations in life. All persons, including the Plaintiff, Mr. Burnikel, and the Defendants, Mr. Fong and Mr. Wessels, stand equal before the law, and each is entitled to the same fair consideration.
